

POSTCARDS FROM PARADISE

DUNAS BEACH RESORT
SAL ISLAND - CAPE VERDE

Hi everyone

I think I've died and gone to heaven!

This place is just beautiful. We're right on the beach front with white sands as far as you can see - and it's bright blue skies and sunshine every day. Can you believe it?

Our villa is just lovely - quiet, spacious, elegant and really well designed. It's all exactly how we'd imagined it. And so relaxing

- I can't get Mike out of the pool. Remember that place last year?

This is the opposite. Lots of space to move around and live in.

And everything we need is right on our doorstep - five star hotel, restaurants, wine bar, shops, tennis courts ... all set in lovely landscaped grounds.

We feel really welcome here, and we've made friends already.

So we finally got our own little piece of paradise.

I'd better stop before I make you too jealous!

Love to all,

Sarah

POSTCARD

Just had to write to tell you about this

- unusual for me, I know.

The whole journey only took about six hours - no jet lag!

The apartment's great. Nicely appointed, loads of room and very stylish.

We've got our own terrace where we sit out until late, just looking at the stars.

It already feels like a real second home.

There's so much to do here, and we discover something new every day.

The food is really delicious - especially the tropical fruit.

We're trying out a local fish restaurant this evening which everyone says is really good.

Last night we had dinner in the resort hotel with some people we'd met.

Started in the piano bar then moved on to the poolside restaurant.

I know it's tough, but someone has to do it!

I'm joining a few others for golf all day tomorrow

- Linda and the girls are going shopping in Santa Maria.

Hope the weather's not too bad back home!

Dan

IDS FROM

Hey

This place rocks!

You won't believe all the sport we're doing - kitesurfing, windsurfing and diving just in the last three days.

We dived round these wrecks and caves and saw some mad tropical fish as well as rays and tuna. A turtle swam right past me.

Water's really clear.

Conditions are great for windsurfing. Some guy set the world speed record here on Cape Verde. Fantastic waves and the sun never stops shining.

Couldn't get the others up this morning so I went for a long run along the beach, then swam right out. When I got back they'd all gone horse-riding!

Haven't got round to the gym yet - too nice outside.

This afternoon we're off on a boat trip to try out the nightlife on one of the other islands.

I'm living the dream!

See you soon

Chris
